I'D LIKE TO EXTEND THE WARMEST OF WELCOMES TO PLAYERS OF ALL ABILITIES AS WE LAUNCH THE SOUTH AYRSHIRE GOLF FESTIVAL 2019. WITH GENERATIONS OF COMPETITORS HAVING TAKEN PART IN OUR EXCITING PROGRAMME OF EVENTS WE'RE PROUD TO CONTINUE THE TRADITION WHILE PROMOTING GOLF TO THE NEXT GENERATION.

With modern facilities waiting at Belleisle, Troon and Girvan, anyone signing up to take part this year can rest assured that the challenges posed by our courses are matched by excellent clubhouses and a first class service, as organisers aim work tirelessly to deliver a tournament to remember.

Following a number of new additions in 2018 we're pleased to welcome back the Robert Burns Trophy to Ayr Golf Week, which complements the established Tam o' Shanter and Handyside tournaments; while we hoped the revamped Junior Open will inspire the next generation of players while also safeguarding the sport's future.

The Troon Golf Weekender remains a popular well subscribed event and we expect to see continued strong interest in this challenging competition this summer. Meanwhile the Girvan Golf Classic is celebrating a milestone anniversary and returns for its 30th edition in 2019, something we're sure will help to promote a great course to an even wider audience in the months ahead.

We're committed to making the most of the local economy and promoting the fantastic assets we have in South Ayrshire to as wide an audience as possible, while also championing healthy lifestyles and the benefits of taking part in sport. The South Ayrshire Golf festival plays an important role in that work and every year we see people from across the UK travel to take part in our showcase competitions.

Taking place against the backdrop of a stunning coastline and with excellent golf on offer I look forward to welcoming hundreds of competitors this year as we celebrate the best the region has to offer, while embracing the sport that stamped South Ayrshire's reputation on the international map.
