How we use your information

We take the privacy of our Members seriously and will only use the personal information you supply to us to administer your account, to provide you with access to our golf facilities and if agreed to provide the products and services you have requested from us.

To find out what to expect when the Council collects your personal information and how we process and protect your information, please visit our website at - <https://www.south-ayrshire.gov.uk/terms/policy/>

However, from time to time we would like to contact you with details of other Golf activities, offers and competitions that we provide. We will only do this if you give us your consent. If you consent to us contacting you for this purpose you will be asked to tick the relevant box and to choose how we may be able to contact you at time of registration.

If you do consent, please note you can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting info@golfsouthayrshire.com or by contacting a member of Golf staff at our facilities. Please note that all processing of your personal data in relation to direct marketing will cease once you have withdrawn consent, but this will not affect any personal data being processed out with this purpose.

For further details on the information we collect from you, how we use and store that information, our full privacy notice is also on our website at - <https://beta.south-ayrshire.gov.uk/privacy-notice>. If you have any questions about how we use your personal information, please do not hesitate to contact the Golf Team.
